

And the Winner Is...

Carolina Breast Friends

Fighting the battle against cancer on the dance floor.

Thirteen of our city's brightest Stars lit up the stage with their Pros at this year's Dancing with the Stars of Charlotte to Benefit the Pink House. The second annual event raised over $554,000 to help Carolina Breast Friends serve breast cancer patients and survivors in our community. The evening was dedicated to the memory of Dr. Teresa Flippo-Morton, a beloved surgeon who died of cancer in 2015.

The talented competitors who performed for the sellout crowd were Alexandra Naranjo-Myrick, Dr. Elizabeth Rostan, Leigh Goodwyn, Melissa Hickok, Melissa Countryman, Dr. Michael Robinson, Amy Blumenthal, Keith Alyea, Katie Tyler, Suzanne Cafferty-Ross, Rachel Brown, Michelle Horton and Dr. Duncan Morton, Jr., husband of Dr. Teresa Flippo-Morton.

Two mirror ball trophies were awarded – one for the top fundraiser and one for the highest scores from the judges. Leigh Goodwyn, founding partner of LeighDuex dorm and home décor company, won both trophies; but donations are still coming in, and Carolina Breast Friends is the big winner!

If you or a member of your family have been diagnosed with breast cancer, call Carolina Breast Friends at 704.370.7773, visit carolinabreastfriends.org or drop by 1607 E. Morehead St., Charlotte, NC 28207. ■

Charlotte Living is extremely proud of our contributor Dr. Elizabeth Rostan, Owner and Physician at Charlotte Skin & Laser, who danced beautifully to raise funds and awareness for Carolina Breast Friends and The Pink House.
