

FOR THE CHILDREN

3rd Annual Jimmy Jam Music Festival benefits Allegro Foundation

Local musicians came together this spring at Rama Swim & Racquet Club for the 3rd Annual Jimmy Jam Music Festival to celebrate the life of their friend and former Charlotte Living publisher Jim Oakley. The music was outstanding, and families enjoyed a day at the pool, a picnic and great live music. Admission was free, but donations, raffles and a silent auction raised funds for Allegro Foundation...a Champion for Children with Disabilities, which was Jim's favorite charity. We are grateful to Kelly Carl, Ti Tiksa Thorne,

Carl King and Rama Swim & Racquet Club for organizing this incredible festival for the third year, and to all who made it such a beautiful day. Charlotte is blessed with generous and talented musicians, so please go out and support them in the community.

